

The Kilmer Undergraduate Research Apprenticeships are designed to support students and faculty collaboration on independent research projects during the academic year.

The Kilmer Undergraduate Research Poster Excellence Award was given to Banu Kandemir for her poster entitled "The Binding of Human Transferrin to the Transferrin Receptor and the Delivery of Iron to Cells." The research project was conducted under the supervision of Dr. Fadi Bou-Abdallah

From left to right: Banu Kandemir (SUNY Sophomore student); Dr. F. Bou-Abdallah, Dr. C. Rossiter and Diana Fisher (Director, Student Support Services)

From left to right: Dr. F. Bou-Abdallah, Dr. Bethany Usher (Director of the Center for Undergraduate Research at SUNY Postdam) and Banu Kandemir