MYTH:
An HIV infected child is dangerous to his or her peers.

FACT:
HIV infected children with compromised immune systems are at greater risk of contracting various infections from their peers than of spreading HIV.