

In order to ensure a pleasant concert experience for both performers and audience, please refrain from:

- Entering or leaving during the performance.
- Bringing food or drink into the concert hall.
 - Taking flash photographs.
- Using electronic devices. (Please completely turn off any devices that make sounds or have glowing screens).

Audio/video recording of this performance is strictly prohibited!

Thank you!

In Case of Fire Emergency

Leave the building immediately by walking to the nearest safe exit. Once outside, please move fifty feet away from the building and safely away from emergency traffic. Do not return to the building until authorities indicate that it is safe to do so.

Please bear with us during the construction phase of the new Performing Arts Building. Additional parking may be found at the NATCO lot across Main Street from the Hosmer lot, and in Lot 6 near the front entrance of Snell Theater. If these parking lots are filled, please park in Lot 2 or Lot 1 near the front entrance of Raymond Hall. From Lots 6, 2 or 1, Hosmer is most easily accessed by walking up the ramp along the north side of Snell, and across the Crane plaza.

THE FIRST NOWELL

English Carol
arr. David Willcocks

Audience, please stand and sing

The first Nowell the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay, keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep:

Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell
Born is the King of Israel!

They looked up and saw a star,
Shining in the east, beyond them far;
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night:

Refrain

Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heavenly Lord
That hath made heaven and earth of nought,
And with his blood mankind hath bought:

Refrain

* EL SOMBRERO DE TRES PICOS (THREE-CORNERED HAT) SUITE NO. 2

Manuel de Falla
(1876-1946)

Farruca
Jota

Manuel de Falla's El sombrero de tres picos was premiered in 1919 by Sergei Diaghilev's Ballet Russe, with costumes and sets designed by Picasso and choreography by Léonide Massine. The ballet is set in Andalusia, and material both borrowed from and in imitation of Andalusian folk music can be heard throughout de Falla's score. Suite No. 2 consists of three dances from the ballet: the seguidillas, a light and quick dance traditionally in triple time; the farruca, a form of flamenco; and the jota, a dance in 6/8 time typically accompanied by castanets.

O COME, ALL YE FAITHFUL

arr. David Willcocks

Audience, please stand and sing

O come, all ye faithful, Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him, Born the king of Angels

O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels, Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God, Glory in the highest:

Refrain

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, Born this happy morning;
Jesus, to thee be glory given!
Word of the Father, Now in flesh appearing!

Refrain

FLAMEBen Parry

“Thousands of candles can be lit from a single candle, and the life of the candle will not be shortened. Happiness never decreases by being shared.”

Siddhartha Gautama Buddha

A flame
Dispels the dark
Its delicate light repels the shadows

A flame alone
Brings within its flicker
A welcoming warmth

A single flame
That shares its light
Is but strengthened by this splitting in two

And as each flame
Begets another
Its life and light is multiplied
To become unending
Forever burning
A beacon that both beckons and guides
So to light the world
