Nikki Langhorne is currently a senior majoring in Music Performance and Music Business at the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. Nikki is a native of Medford, New York, where she studied flute with Melanie Scalice. Currently, at Crane, she is in the flute studio of Kenneth Andrews. Nikki has been Principle Flute and piccolo for both Crane Symphonic Band and Concert Band, has performed on flute and piccolo in the Crane Wind Ensemble and has performed as a principal in the Crane Symphony Orchestra. Nikki also frequently performs with a wide variety of chamber ensembles. In fall of 2009, Nikki participated in a masterclass with professor of flute at University of West Virginia, Francesca Arnone. She performed her senior performance recital at Crane this spring and plans to attend SUNY Purchase next fall to pursue a Performer’s Certificate in flute.
